

Archival Scribes & Literacy in Babylonia: Theory and Practice

Workshop at Leiden University 1-2 June, 2022

Workshop location: Lipsius building, room 223 (Cleveringaplaats 1, 2311 BD, Leiden)

Wednesday 1 June

10:15 - 10:30 Opening by Maarja Seire

10:30 - 11:00 Mathieu Ossendrijver
Traces of mathematical education in selected Babylonian archival documents from the Achaemenid period

11:00 - 11:30 Rieneke Sonneveld
Writing Aramaic on clay

COFFEE BREAK 11:30-12:00

12:00 - 12:30 Caroline Waerzeggers
Archivalization in Babylonian society: why, when, who?

12:30 - 13:00 Maarja Seire
The legal and social practices of writing Neo-Babylonian archival documents

LUNCH 13:00-15:00

15:00 - 15:30 Wiebke Beyer
Traces of handwriting – The case of Ennam-Aššur

15:30 - 16:00 Shai Gordin
Neo-Babylonian scribal habits from a stylometric perspective

Thursday 2 June

10:00 - 10:30 Paulina Pikulska
Šūzubu from the Ileʾi-Marduk family – a scribe of prebendal texts

10:30 - 11:00 Radosław Tarasewicz
Duplicates in Rēmūt-Nabû//Bēl-eṭēri from Sippar, the scribe's dossier

11:00 - 11:30 Johannes Hackl
Scribes and their significance for the reconstruction of interrelationships among the priestly families of Hellenistic Uruk

COFFEE BREAK 11:30-12:00

12:00 - 12:45 Roundtable discussion

© The Trustees of the British Museum (BM 30340)

Universiteit
Leiden

PERSIA & BABYLONIA

